The Casa Di Lusso

The combination of practical space for the family as well as the charming style and design, makes Casa Di Lusso a popular choice among many, providing practical living with a sense of style and elegance. The home consists of a master bedroom with en-suite, guest rooms, open plan living area, kitchen, bathroom and utility room.

The open plan living area is vast, lined by rustic white, rough sawn timber walls. Communal and inviting, heavy lustrous fabrics in neutral tones warm the space whilst floor to ceiling windows provide an abundance of light. Textures are fabulously contrasting; rough, distressed woods compliment soft gentle green furnishings. You can only marvel at the fully-equipped, country style kitchen, made complete with a feature island breakfast bar.

Wrap yourself in the splendour and opulence of the master bedroom. Children will be wide-eyed and utterly excited at the prospect of staying in the quirky den-like bunk beds in the second bedroom and further that there is a third bedroom with two single beds. Completely unique and truly timeless.

Langtoft Lakes

Investment

For those considering purchasing a lodge with Langtoft Lakes as an investment we have two options for your consideration, whilst these are negotiable they centre around the main points listed below.

OPTION 1

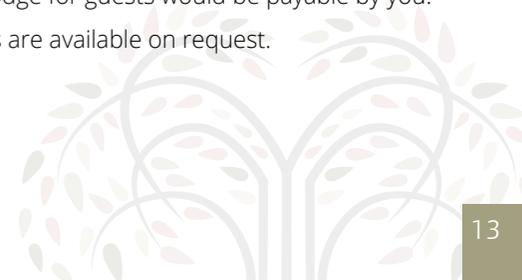

The buyer can choose to receive an 8% return on their purchase in the first 5 years paid quarterly in arrears. The lodge would be rented through us via Hoseasons and would have to be available for rental year round meaning this option is best suited to those who do not wish to stay in their lodge. With this option Langtoft Lakes will cover all the costs of preparing the lodge for guests.

EXAMPLE: If you were to purchase a lodge for £300,000 you would receive £24,000 yearly in the first 5 years. (This may be extended, conditions apply)

OPTION 2

Hoseasons have forecast a great return on our lodges. This option provides you with the flexibility to stay in your lodge at pre-booked times whilst also renting with Hoseasons via Langtoft Lakes. Running costs and fees associated with preparing the lodge for guests would be payable by you.

Rental forecasts are available on request.

The Local Area

LANGTOFT & BASTON

Langtoft is a small village with a thriving community spirit. This pretty village offers a rural way of life within easy access to all the amenities that modern living requires.

Baston plays host to several popular annual events including a Classic Car show, 1940's event and Bonfire Festival. The village boasts two excellent public houses both with enviable reputations for serving top quality food and drink.

The villages are on the A15 road and are about 10 miles from the City of Peterborough and 8 miles from the historic Georgian town of Stamford. Nearby market towns of Bourne and Market Deeping add to the rural feel of the area.

STAMFORD

Voted one of the best places to live in the UK by the Sunday Times, Stamford boasts magnificent Georgian architecture, niche shopping, beautiful riverside meadows, prestigious local food and a vibrant Arts Centre.

Stamford is the most complete stone town in England; whole streets unchanged over the centuries and with 600 listed mellow limestone buildings.

Home to Burghley House and its magnificent parklands, filled with ancient trees and a fallow deer herd which traces its ancestry right back to the sixteenth century. The grounds of Burghley House are a delight to stroll around and there are regular events held within the grounds.

BOURNE

Renowned for its open spaces, parks and woodland and with 71 listed buildings, Bourne has a charm all of its own.

Bourne's Heritage Museum, Baldocks Mill is the only remaining mill of 3 listed in the Domesday Book and it is well worth a visit. Bourne is steeped in motor racing history with Graham Hill and Jackie Stewart at the wheel of Bourne manufactured race cars for many victories. As an added bonus it is situated on the edge of one of the best walking areas in the district, Bourne Wood.

MARKET DEEPING

This thriving market town nestles beside the River Welland, alongside the villages of Deeping St James and West Deeping. Collectively known as The Deepings there is a wealth of local history, scenic walks and country pubs to discover. The town hosts popular annual events such as The Deepings Raft Race and annual Duck Race.

RUTLAND

Just a short drive from Langtoft you will find England's smallest county, which offers charming market towns and delightful villages. Rutland's many attractive villages, set in the wonderful English countryside, are home to picture postcard cottages and traditional country pubs.

At its heart is Rutland Water one of the largest man-made lakes in Europe. Rutland Water is a great place for relaxation, recreation and conservation and has a range of activities, suitable for all ages, being run all year round. Rutland Water offers a multitude of leisure pursuits including water sports, cycling, fishing and bird watching.
